

Thank you FCC for acting on the behalf of the public. I think it should be illegal for phone companies to sell detailed records my private communications to anyone for any reason!!